OF ADMISSION.

To be received into the Freshman Class, the candidate must be thoroughly acquainted with the Grammar of the Latin and Greek languages, including Prosody ; be able properly to construe and parse any portion of the following books, namely, Jacobs's Greek Reader, the Gospels in the Greek Testament, Virgil, Sallust, and Cicero's Select Oration, and to translate English into Latin correctly. He must be well versed in Ancient and Modern Geography ; the fundamental rules of Arithmetick ; vulgar and decimal fractions ; proportion, simple and compound ; single and double fellowship ; alligation, medial and alternate ; and Algebra, to the end of simple equations, comprehending also the doctrine of roots and powers, and arithmetical and geometrical progression.

The other books used in the examination are the following, namely, Adam's Latin Grammar (Gould's Edition is preferred) ; the Gloucester Greek Grammar (Buttman's Greek Grammar, and the Abridgment of it are allowed) ; Lacroix's Arithmetick, Cambridge edition ; Euler's Algebra, printed also at Cambridge ; "Elements of Geography, Ancient and Modern, by J. E. Worcester."

The stated time of examination for the Freshman Class is the Monday of Commencement week. Those who are necessarily prevented from offering themselves at that time, may be examined on the Friday of said week. If any one be admitted after the second week of the First Term, he will be considered as admitted to advanced standing.

Persons may be admitted to advanced standing, or from any other College, at any part of the College course previous to the Second Term of the Senior year. In order to such admission, the candidate, in addition to the requisites for the Freshman Class, must appear, on examination, to be well versed in the studies of the class which he proposes to enter. He must also pay into the Treasury a sum equal to the charge made for instruction upon those of the standing to which he is admitted. Any Scholar, however, who has a regular dismissal from another College, may be admitted to the standing, for which, on examination, he is found qualified, without any pecuniary consideration.

The University is open to persons who are not condidates for a degree, and who desire to study in particular departments only : Provided that such persons have a good moral character ; that their previous acquisitions be such as are now demanded of Students before admission, so far as the studies proposed to be pursued shall require ; and that they be subject to all the laws of the University, in regard to diligence, good conduct, and College discipline.

Graduates of any public college or university are admissible as Theological Students. Application to be made to the Secretary of the Faculty of Theology.

Persons qualified by the rules of the courts in any of the United States, to become Students of Law, may be received into the Law School, for a period not less than one term. Application to be made to the University Professor of Law.

Medical Students, who would attend the course of Medical Lectures at the Massachusetts College of Medicine in Boston, enter their names with the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine, on or before the third Tuesday of November.

Every person before admission to any of the Classes or Schools of the University, must exhibit proper testimonials of his moral character.

COMMENCEMENT is on the last Wednesday in August. The academical year is divided into three TERMS and three VACATIONS :—the first Vacation is of two weeks, from the Wednesday preceding the 25th day of December ; the second, of two weeks, from the first Wednesday in April ; and the third, of six weeks, next preceding Commencement.

Public Exhibitions are on the third Tuesday of October, and on the second and last Tuesday of the third Term.

The Dudleian Lecture is on the second Wednesday in May.

The regular Gymnastick exercises, when the Superintendent of the Gymnasium is present, are on Wednesday and Friday, from 12 to 1 o'clock ; or when the length of the day admits, after evening Commons. On Monday, the Monitors and Vice Monitors meet separately with the Superintendent, to prepare for the general exercises.

Military exercises are allowed on Tuesday and Thursday, from 12 to 1 o'clock, or after evening Commons ; with music not oftener than every other time, and liberty of a parade on the afternoon of Exhibition day.
